

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

18CV7974

United States of America

v.

12 CR 423 (AJN)

Minh Quang Pham
DEFENDANT

72016-054

RE: § 2255 Legal Assistance

Dear Judge,

I am writing to you because I am currently housed in pursuant to 28 C.F.R. § 501.3
(Special Administrative Measures "S.A.M's") and all my personal and legal communication is severely restricted.

During the past 2 years I have learnt that certain legal issues that could affect me have come to light:

Specifically Justice Scalia decision in Johnson v. U.S. 135 S. Ct 2551 (2015), that the "residual clause" definition of "crime of violence" of the Armed Career Criminal Act ("ACCA") contained in 18 U.S.C. § 924 (e) (2) (B) (i) was unconstitutionally "void for vagueness" under the 5th Amendment's Due Process Clause, then in April, 17 (2018), the Supreme Court affirmed the Judgment of the Court of Appeals.

See: Sessions v. Dimaya, 2018 U.S. LEXIS

2497 (2018), and most recently in

Chapman v. U.S.

Being a foreign national whose first language is not English and unschooled in legal matters and on S.A.M.'s restriction, I suffer several disadvantages on top of which there is a time limits for 1 year from April 17 (2018).

I believe, with these changes in the definition of what constitutes a "crime of violence", I have legal cause to challenge the length of my 40 years sentence, therefore I ask this court for appointment of counsel to assist in exceedingly complex legal issues to do so.

The changes could directly affect specifically my count 5 conviction: 18 U.S.C 924 (c) (1) (B) (ii) "carrying and using a Machine gun, in furtherance of crimes of violence" to which the Judge sentenced me to mandatory minimum of 30 years.

Respectfully Submitted

Minh Pham

BP-229 RESPONSE

Case Number: 925445-F1

Your Request for Administrative Remedy dated December 13, 2017, and received in this office on December 18, 2017, has been reviewed. Specifically, you claim you sent mail to your family on November 6, 2017, and it is being delayed by outside agencies beyond fourteen (14) days. As relief, you request the letters be forwarded to your family.

A review of the issues raised in your Request for Administrative Remedy has been conducted. The results of the review revealed the referenced correspondence was processed in accordance with the Special Administrative Measures (SAM). Per the SAM, all non-legal correspondence is copied and forwarded to the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) for analysis and approval prior to being forwarded for delivery to you (incoming), or directly to the addressee (outgoing). Time periods for analysis are set forth in Paragraph 3(g)(iv), of the SAM. For correspondence written entirely in the English language, a reasonable time period for government analysis is fourteen (14) business days; however, if the correspondence includes any statements, phrases and/or writing in a language other than English, the correspondence is sent for translation and the reasonable time period for analysis is extended to sixty (60) business days. Additionally, where the federal government has reasonable suspicion to believe that a code was used, a reasonable time period for analysis is sixty (60) business days, to allow for decoding. With regard to your request to receive a notification concerning the delay, the SAM provides you will be notified in writing of the seizure of any mail that is determined by the Federal Bureau of Prisons or the FBI to contain overt or covert discussions of or requests for illegal activities, the soliciting or encouraging of acts of violence, or actual or attempted circumvention of the SAM.

Accordingly, your Request for Administrative Remedy is denied. In the event you are not satisfied with this response and wish to appeal, you may do so within 20 calendar days of the date of this response by submitting a BP-230(13) to the Regional Director, Federal Bureau of Prisons, North Central Regional Office, Gateway Complex, Tower II, 8th Floor, 400 State Avenue, Kansas City, Kansas 66101-2492.
